But Judges are only human, and are governed by human motives and possions. The people who just reelected Judge Brewer, gave a decided expression on this prohibition business. The people are the source of all power, and their will is law. Judge Brewer recognizes this fact, and takes a liberal view of the question. The other Judges have ambitions for the near future, and do not yet realize that the deluge has actually come. They trim and pander to the craze that has almost ruined the State. Things have come to that pass that the people have very little respect for the opinions of Courts. They submit as a matter of necessity, not because they arquiese in their decisions. They must make up their minds that the only way to rid the State of this prohibition curse is to remove every officer who favors its continuance, just as fast as the peaceful process of law will permit. These two Judges should have a dose of the same medicine that was administered to St. John. In two years, an outire new Schale and House will be elected, and a Chief Justice also. The opponents of prohibition should maintain the determination, with an immovable persistence, to then elect a Legislature that will re-submit the amendment and repeal the prohibitory act, a Governor who will approve the act, and a Judge who will sastain

B. J. RENDALL & Co. Goods — Having got a house book of you by small a year age, the consentence of which personal rel me to try Kenniell's Sparin Cure on the hind log of one of my house which was hadly sealled, and could not be reduced by any other remedy. I got two battless of Kenniell's Sparin Cure of Loodonth Durggists, of Wassera, which completely sured my house. About fire years ago, I had a three-year old cold two center very hadly. I need your reinedy as given by your look, without rewelling and I must say to your crest the three could be entirely entirely, which is a surprise, not only a myself, but also to my neighbors. You sent me the bit A fire the trifling sum of 25 centes, and if I coinful not got another like it I would not take twenty-live dullers for it.

Du. B. J. Kennall & Cu. Genter—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for benefits and profits which I have derived from your invaluable and far-famed Spavin Cure. My consin and I had a valuable stallion, worth $4000, which had a very bad spavin, and was penessuased by four emineut veterinary surgeons beyond any cure, and that this beave was done for ever. As a last resort, I advised my consint to try a heatle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. It had a magical effect the third bottle cure it, and the horse is as well as ever. Dr. Dick, of Edinburgh, the eminent veterinary engons, was an uncle of nine, and I take great interest in assisting his profession.
